EDITORS' NOTE

We, the Annual Staff Editors of 1959, express our sincere gratitude to the Faculty for their understanding and co-operation.

To the students for their tolerance and consideration during the past several months, our deepest appreciation.

Last, but not least, we are indebted to our Adviser, Miss McClory, for her time and guidance in the preparation of this another memoir.

To everyone, we say, "THANKS".

JUNIOR AND SENIOR BANQUET 1957-58

"Rendezvous Under the Stars" was the theme chosen by the Junior Class. The gymnasium was decorated with pastel blue and silver streamers forming false walls. A star-studded sky over the dance floor consisted of various sized gold and silver stars intermingled with blue light bulbs. A large yellow moon hovered over the band, seated at the side of the dance floor. Opposite the band stood a large wishing well. The roof was covered with blue angel hair sprinkled with gold stars. Decorated card tables were scattered on the outskirts of the floor.

Streamers divided the dance floor from the banquet area. Iris and spirea decorated the tables; all other table decorations were in accordance with the evening's theme.

As the guests entered through a corridor of streamers, Reta Jean Michaels and Sandra Thomas, Junior ushers, greeted them and invited them to enjoy punch and hors d'oeuvres from the wishing well.

The banquet began at six-thirty o'clock. Jokes were presented by Jim Giesler, "Wizard of the Stars," the Junior toastmaster. A toast, "Starstudded Welcome" was presented by the Junior Class president, Ruth Spannagel. The Senior response of thanks, "Moonlight Response," was offered by the class president, Jim Bales. The "Prophecy of the Stars" was read by Sandra Ruwe and the "Will of the Passing Comets" was read by Imogene Reel.

The menu was as follows:

Moonlight Sonata
(Punch)

Sputnicks
(HorsD'oeuvres)

Celestial Filet
(Steak)

Dreamboat Adrift
(Potatoes and gravy)

Northern Lights
(Crab Apples)

Meteors
(Hot Rolls)

Satellites
(Carrot-celery sticks)

Milky Way and Floating Cloud
(Pink Angel Food Cake and Vanilla Ice Cream)

Star Chips and Moonstones
(Nuts and Mints)

Heavenly Mist
(Coffee)

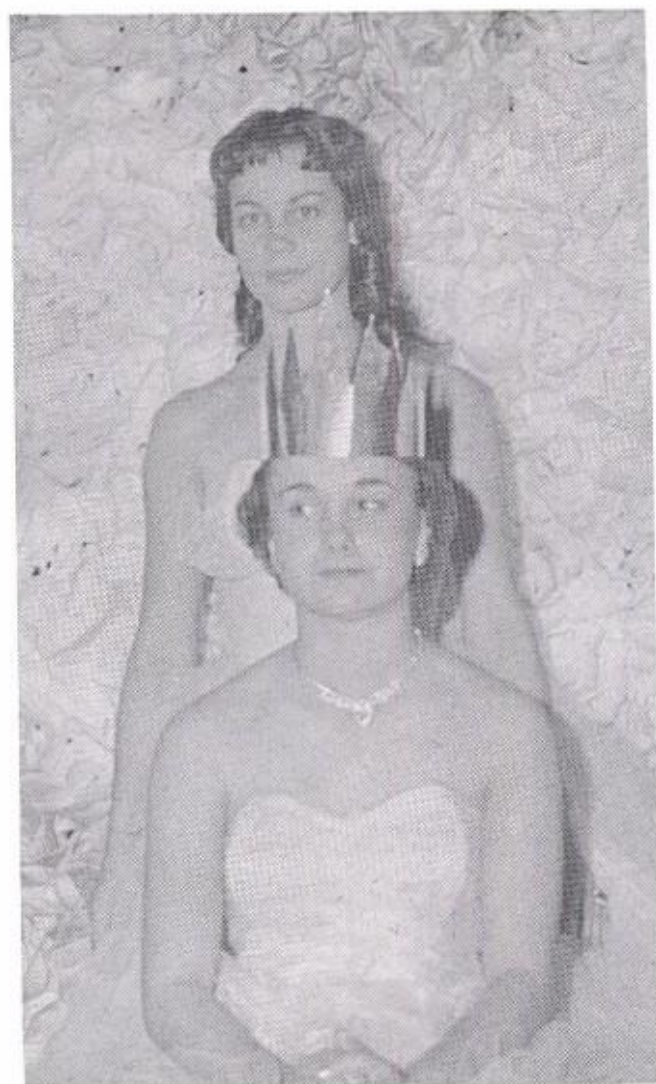

Dew Drops
(Tea)

After the festive supper, dancing continued until eleven-thirty o'clock. Thus climaxed the beautiful evening under the stars.

HOMECOMING

On November 27, 1958, the Stewardson-Strasburg Comets were defeated by the Windsor Blue Devils by a score of 76-64.

The Windsor ballplayers, cheerleaders, coaches and administration were invited for a luncheon following the game.

The highlight of the Annual affair was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. The background for the throne of Her Majesty was a green frame with a white heart in the center. This was placed on the gym floor.

The attendants approached the throne from the side doors of the gym.

Master of Ceremonies, Doug Lueck, introduced the attendants and their escorts to the audience in the following order:

Howard Koontz and Bill Swank ushered the attendants to the throne.

The Freshman attendants were Lady Carol Bales and Escort Tom Lowry and Lady Janet Baumgarten and escort J. C. Kessler. Carol wore a pink ruffled formal and Janet wore an ice blue formal.

The next attendants to appear were the Sophomores. Lady Carole Wallace and Escort Bill Giesler and Lady Donna Spannagel and Escort Larry Shumard. Carole's formal was of pink lace and Donna's a light green with tiny white ruffles.

The Junior attendants were Lady Darlene Beitz and Escort Jim Giesler and Lady Joyce Reynolds and Escort Jerry Lugar. Darlene's formal was blue net ruffles and Joyce's blue eyelet lace.

The Senior attendants were Lady Kay Davis and her Escort George Williams and Lady Janet Syfert and her Escort Bob Keller. Kay's formal was lavender white embroidery on net and Janet's, orchid net ruffles over taffeta.

Miss Kay Lading and Master Bradley Friese were the next to appear as the crownbearers.

Approaching the throne was Her Majesty, Miss Kathryn Schmitt escorted by Arlyn Culver.

Miss Beverly Underwood, the retiring Queen, approached the throne and crowned Miss Schmitt the 1958 Homecoming Queen and presented her with a bouquet of red roses.

Mr. Ronnie Hash served as Beverly's Escort.

Each attendant received a three red rose corsage and each escort received a white carnation boutonniere.

A public dance followed the coronation.

CARNIVAL

The Annual Fall Carnival sponsored by the Lettermen's Club was held on November 7, 1958. Concessions were available during the evening. Highlighting the entertainment of the evening was a trampoline exhibition by four senior girls. Also, a "Burlesque Show" by members of the Lettermen's Club. The Chorus sang two numbers and a short skit ended the entertainment. Ronnie Hash served as Master of Ceremonies.

The crowning of the King and Queen was the highlight of the evening. Candidates for this occasion were elected by each class.

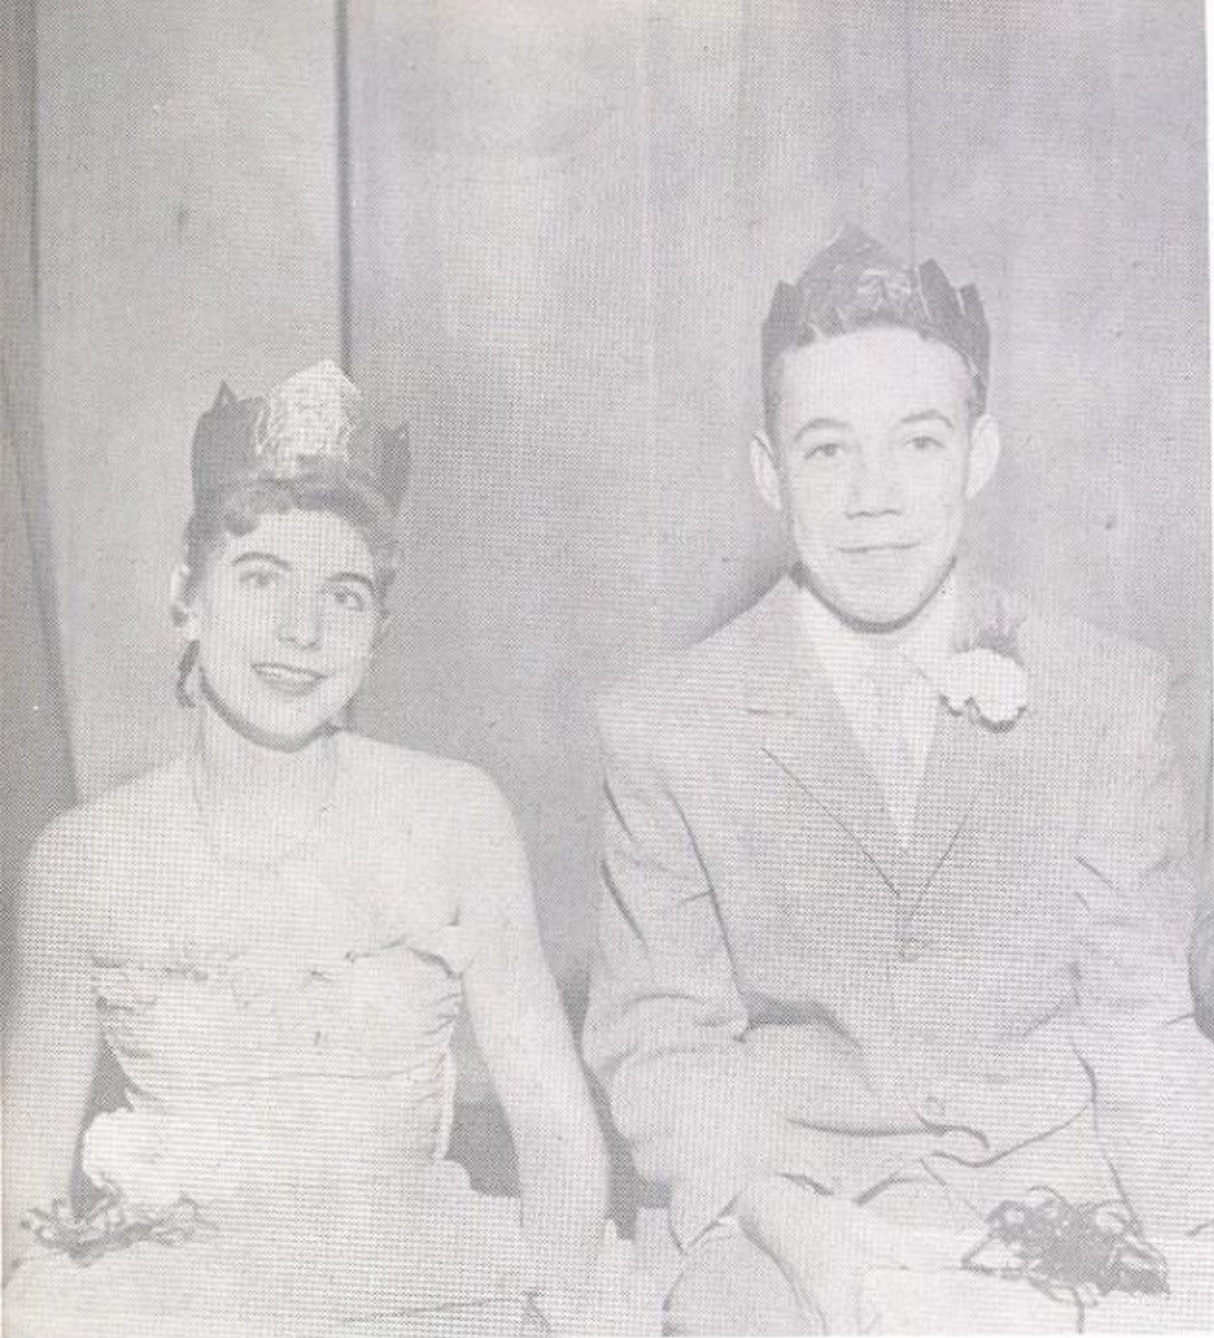

Soft music was heard in the background as the candidates took their places beside the throne. Miss Linda Anderson and Mr. Frank Rincker, the Sophomore candidates, were the first to appear. Miss Wanda Webner and Mr. Dwight Steineman, the Senior candidates, were next to make an appearance.

They were followed by the Junior candidates, Miss Janet Friese and Mr. Douglas Lueck.

The crown bearers, Miss Lisa Falk and Master Dwayne Lueck, were next to advance to the throne.

The big moment had arrived. The Freshmen candidates, Miss Carol Lowry and Mr. Ronnie Johnson were approaching the throne to be crowned King and Queen of the 1958-59 Stewardson-Strasburg Carnival by Jim Giesler and Ronnie Hash. The King and Queen each received a gift from the Lettermen's Club.

Each Queen candidate was presented with a corsage of white carnations and each King candidate received a boutonniere.

The plot of this play revolves around the Popoff family and the Fry family who have been feuding for years because one of the Popoff boys said that he was going out to shoot an old skunk one day and accidentally shot Paw Fry instead. Periodically, Mountain Maggie must patch someone who is hurt in the feud. Rosie Belle takes the only unattached male in the hills from under her sister Emmy's nose. Emmy, who would like to get "hitched", enlists the aid of Mountain Maggie to put an end to the feud. Mountain Maggie convinces Maw Fry and Pappy Popoff that some plain sugar water that she gives them is a "love-potion" which will make them fall in love. They are tired of being lonely and have just about decided to marry and end the feud, when Rosie Belle arrives with the news that it was all a trick. Once again the feud is going full force. In the end, the feud is ended and everybody is happy, but not before there are several merry mix-ups and rib-tickling situations.

The Stewardson-Strasburg Future Farmers of America, a non-compulsory organization, consists of boys enrolled in agriculture. Our club is under the leadership of Mr. Cloide Carruthers. All agriculture students are urged to join FFA. Our club activities consist of: money-making projects, FFA contests, chapter awards, parties with FHA girls, and other service activities. Parliamentary procedure and public speaking contests, individual farming activity awards, grain, stock, poultry, and dairy judging contests are sponsored by this club. The FFA degrees are awarded by the achievement shown in individual farming programs supervised by each boy.

Our motto is:

Learning to do
Doing to learn
Earning to live
Living to serve.
